

A BOMBER COMMAND MUSEUM OF CANADA BULLETIN

2012-12-26

Watch the CBC NATIONAL NEWS on Thursday, December 27th (10:00 for The National; also on the CBC NEWS CHANNEL at 7:00) for a report on WW II BCATP instructor Gordon Jones and his biography by Anne Gafiuk. Gordon has volunteered and flown flypasts for our museum for over twenty years. The book has been published by our museum. For an introduction to Gordon visit <http://www.bombercommandmuseum.ca/s,gordonjones.html>.

With the assistance of Veterans Affairs Canada, our museum has produced a video that tells the story of the recovery of Halifax LW682 and our museum's involvement in the eventual incorporation of the aluminum from the aircraft into the ceiling of the recently dedicated Bomber Command Memorial in London. Links to the video are on our website at <http://www.bombercommandmuseum.ca/memoriallondon.html>.

Through the efforts of our partners at Halifax 57 Rescue, we have now secured a beautiful Halifax nose blister as shown below. Our thanks to Richard Annis of Margate UK for his cooperation.

PLEASE NOTE THAT WE ARE A VOLUNTEER DRIVEN, REGISTERED CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION.
We depend upon private donations for our operation and development. Please help if you can.
