

A BOMBER COMMAND MUSEUM OF CANADA BULLETIN

2014-02-04

THE GREAT ESCAPE - A CANADIAN STORY

This is the title of Ted Barris' new book that brings to light the huge role played by Canadian airmen in The Great Escape. Follow this link for details:

<http://tedbarris.com/category/books/> .

We are pleased to announce that Ted will be joining us on 23 August as we commemorate the 70th Anniversary.

Preliminary information regarding all our events (including "Bikes & Bombers II") and an Engine Run

Schedule is available at: www.bombercommandmuseum.ca .

SNOW PROBLEMS OVERCOME

A section of the ceiling above the southeastern section of our display area began to collapse under the weight of an unusually heavy accumulation of snow. Thanks to quick work by Julie in our office, our local volunteers and tradesmen, and our Hutterite friends we quickly had what might have been a major problem resolved.

MUSEUM WORKS TO HONOUR RCAF VIRGINIANS

Follow this link to read of our museum's involvement in the creation of a Memorial in Virginia, USA.
